The Royal Courts of Justice, opened by Queen Victoria in December 1882, is an awe-inspiring landmark in the heart of London's Fleet Street. It is reminiscent of a cathedral in both style and scale. Soaring arches and beautiful stained-glass windows ornamented with the coats of arms of Lord Chancellors and keepers of the Great Seal, combined with a mosaic marble floor leading to a maze of enchanting corridors to create a majestic setting and an exciting visit.

Followed by optional drinks and networking at a local wine bar
